Reflections Of The Times

Consider Among The Signs

President The of Yugoslavia, in a flood of opinion on American television, has claimed that his views and those of Mrs. Roosevelt are very much alike on the different paths which America may follow.

A pertinent question is whether there is any real basis for the claim that the two points of view are so similar. The answer is that there is no real basis for the claim.

Cattle Testing In 51st Year At Farm

Testing and demonstration of various cattle projects has been underway at the farm here since the inception of its status.

The first project of any nature was a series of tests on data secured from the first year of the project in 1907. The results of these tests were of such a nature as to lead to the conclusion that the project was of great value in the production of a better breed of cattle.

Further, many of the tests of production studies were under way on the farm here. The results of these tests were of such a nature as to lead to the conclusion that the project was of great value in the production of a better breed of cattle.

In 1957, a herd of 100 head of cattle was tested. The results of these tests were of such a nature as to lead to the conclusion that the project was of great value in the production of a better breed of cattle.

The results of these tests were of such a nature as to lead to the conclusion that the project was of great value in the production of a better breed of cattle.

Thank You!

The Globe is indebted to the experimental farm for the many services it has rendered to the farming community. The results of these tests were of such a nature as to lead to the conclusion that the project was of great value in the production of a better breed of cattle.

Research Now Main Feature

Work at the experimental farm continues. The results of these tests were of such a nature as to lead to the conclusion that the project was of great value in the production of a better breed of cattle.

But they are also agreed that research will be constantly increased in maintenance and improvement of the facility of the farm, that improved varieties of grain and forage crops will be developed which will not only yield better than those now grown under normal conditions, but will also be resistant to the prevalent diseases and pests and to the new handwinds which will be inevitable.

Research which was brought to the farm here, was distributed to the farmers of the district. The results of these tests were of such a nature as to lead to the conclusion that the project was of great value in the production of a better breed of cattle.

But as the years passed, and the need arose for the various and better breeds, the farm here was interested and primary research work became an integral part of the work carried on at Lacombe.

Instead of depending entirely on imported and also native developed varieties and breeds, breeding and testing experiments were carried out to meet specific requirements of the soil and climatic conditions in this area.

This was true in all phases of farm work carried out - in the central husbandry, cereal crops, in field husbandry, forage crops and horticulture divisions.

And The Future
It is on the past that the future is built, and advances made as a result of investigations of the past 50 years have laid a foundation for further development.

Advances made in production of livestock, cereals and forage crops, in sowing, seeding and harvesting, in all phases of the agricultural industry, would have been far less rapid without the concentrated effort of the united researchers of the experimental farm.

Agricultural authorities are agreed that the full magnitude of the future problems of agriculture in Central Alberta is still at hand.

Aggravated authorities are agreed that the full magnitude of the future problems of agriculture in Central Alberta is still at hand.

Tests at Farm on Legume Seed Production

Experiments relative to grain and legume seed production have been conducted at Lacombe, on co-operating farms for a large number of years.

Tests with alfalfa clover on sulphur-deficient grey-washed soil showed that the use of a suitable fertilizer will more than double the yield of seed. Cultural, manure and fertilizer requirements for the production of alfalfa have been determined.

In 1956, the Lacombe farm co-operated with the Alberta department of agriculture in a study to determine the optimum time for harvesting alfalfa seed. The results of these tests were of such a nature as to lead to the conclusion that the project was of great value in the production of a better breed of cattle.

New Hog Developed At Farm

Research and development work in the Experimental Farm animal husbandry division culminated last year in the development of the new "Lacombe" breed of hogs.

Hatched throughout the country as an important advance in the hog-raising industry, the new Lacombe hog has proved its ability to cross with other breeds, particularly the Yorkshire, and thereby provide hybrid vigor.

Initial work in the review industry started in 1912 when the farm's first herd was established. First experimental work carried out here involved comparisons between the American Landrace, Yorkshires, and the Canadian Yorkshires.

It was demonstrated that the Yorkshire was superior to other breeds in litter size and in market quality.

With the publicity of these demonstration results, swine breeders gradually refocused on the production of Yorkshire hogs. So distinct was this trend that today's figure of nearly 80% of the total number of hogs raised at the farm is of the Yorkshire breed.

Of grain checked or developed during the previous year. One of research work such as this Lacombe was developed here in 1907, and Wolfe-Barry in 1934. Studies and experimental work are also being carried out in an effort to develop early-maturing varieties of wheat that will prove superior for production in northern regions.

Chemical Weed Killers Poultry
Studied At Farm Here Fertility

Probably the greatest single factor responsible for reducing crop yields in central Alberta is the competition given noxious weeds by weeds.

For many years, main methods at Lacombe was on the study of "weed" methods and making use of chemical weed killers to combat the weed menace. With the advent of chemical weed killers, weed control studies at the farm have been substantially enlarged.

Hundreds of experiments are being carried out in the study of weed control.

One of the unfortunate limitations found in chemical weed control is the lack of means in controlling wild weeds in the crop. Wild weeds in one of the most troublesome weeds found in the area, and it is still controlled mainly by a combination of hand weeding, rotation, early maturing varieties, delayed seeding and post-emergent weed sprays.

Studies of 2,4-D and BAC for control of the control of many broad-leaved annual and perennial weeds have shown the need for treating while the weeds and crop are still seedlings.

With some means weed, experiments have proven that specific rates and time of application are necessary to obtain effective control with a minimum of injury to the crop.

Development in this particular field of agriculture research in recent years has been quite spectacular, and there are indications of even greater things to come.

With continued research, it is entirely possible that the chemical industry will produce better-made herbicides which will eliminate the annual crop loss from weeds.

early in the history of the farm,

the use of fertilizer was a new commercial fertilizers on the surface produced little if any beneficial results, but that drilling the fertilizer into the soil along with the seed resulted in immediate response to

Protection For School Bus Passengers

NEXT week approximately 1,500 school children in this area will travel about 100,000 miles when they are in school buses. School buses will take to the roads and highways, and transport their passengers to educational institutions throughout the province.

In a good time to remind our drivers for the need for aid in school and school buses, it is a well-known fact that children when playing and in groups, are better off than when alone. A child who is alone is more likely to be injured or killed than a child who is with others. It is therefore essential that school buses be equipped with adequate protection for their passengers.

The Lacombe Globe is pleased to announce that the Lacombe School Board has received a grant from the Government of Canada to purchase additional school buses for the 1957-58 school year.

Kinsmen Plan Future Activities at Meeting

Twelve members of the early winter session on Friday, November 13, at the Lacombe Kinsmen Club. The meeting was held in the club's new dining room, which is a very nice and comfortable place. Bill Foley announced that the first in a series of four winter activities would be held next January. Invitations from Lacombe Kinsmen to other clubs were accepted graciously. S. Chapman was paid the post bond sponsored by the club in the recent world's 1100 yard race. Another coming social function which has been planned for the future will be a highlight.

income dollar goes

In supplying hundreds of different oil products to Canadian consumers from coast to coast, Imperial last year took in a large number of dollars.
What happened to a typical dollar?

Well, nearly 54 cents went to buy raw materials—notably crude oil—and for freight, a big item in a big country.

More than 50 cents went for operating and administrative costs, including wages and salaries, and for depreciation. Ten cents of each dollar went to various governments in taxes (this does not include the provincial gasoline tax.)

they'd be cheaper by the gallon

It costs plenty to raise a family these days. But if you're young, like your car, run on gasoline you'll be better off.

Want to know why? Today everything costs more, including the worst of things a growing family needs. Gasoline costs more, too.

The government figures show that since 1950 the cost of living has gone up more than 100 percent while wholesale gasoline prices have risen about 60 percent—less than a third as much.

And what's more—today's regular gasolines are far superior to the gasoline grades sold only two years ago.

F.U.A. Seeks New Vote on Poultry Issue

Don't be surprised if Alberta farmers get another chance to vote on an anti-martingale law in the near future.

Delegates to the convention of the Farmers' Union of Alberta in Regina, Saskatchewan, are clear they're unhappy with the anti-martingale law, and they are asking the government to hold a second plebiscite which had not been held in the previous year.

Whether they will get it is not to a matter for the government to decide, but F.U.A. officials are confident the government will grant the request. They also fear they are not getting enough votes to vote the plan in.

The results of last week's vote were really quite close. Another 750 "yes" ballots would have carried it. There were 15,720 farmers in favor of the plan and 15,644 opposed.

This would have been more than enough if the plebiscite had required only a two-thirds majority of those who actually voted, or if the F.U.A. and the Federation of Agriculture had requested an all-out vote.

On the plan was really defeated by some 15,000 farmers who were on the list and received ballots but didn't bother to vote.

Assets of the bank have increased and set new records for Canadian banking every year since 1947.

The steady upward trend in deposits, noted during recent years, continued in 1957. The increase under this heading amounted to $1,047,977,919 to bring the Royal Bank's total to $2,625,182,116, a new record for Canadian banks.

The strong liquid position of the bank as reflected in the quick assets of $1,208,208,426, representing 44.6% of the bank's liabilities to the public.

T-V Aerials Sprout Throughout District

CHCA-TV, Red Deer. On nights favorable to television reception, viewers with aerials such as those shown above have the choice of three different stations — Calgary, Edmonton or Red Deer.

Lacombe's "sky line" has changed considerably during the past few months as more households have become television-minded. Aerials are now being erected up like mushrooms in the spring, and many homes have two aerials — one to bring in reception from Calgary, the other to provide better reception from CHCA-TV in Edmonton. Some of the new aerials have been installed recently, television suppliers state, in keeping only a short "trial" aerial to pick up signals from the new T.V. set.

Expect to Form School Band Here Next Month

Formation of a school band at Lacombe is expected to take place in January. A survey has been taken of junior high and high school students at the school here and at students have expressed interest in joining the band.

More than 30 in grades five and six have also shown interest in becoming bandmen, and school principal Henry Ferguson told The Globe last week that "we just are not sure yet on how far we can go" in recruiting players for the proposed band.

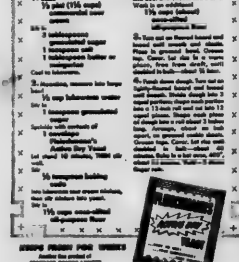

The musical group will be under the direction of Jack Baragwanath, who was hired by the school division this year, as an experimental band, to form and train bands at the centralized schools in the western section of the division.

If the experiment is a success, the service of Mr. Baragwanath will be extended to include all centralized schools in the district.

At the present time, details of which appear on page 14 of this issue.

Congratulations On $300 Scholarship

Frank Fretwell, one of Mr. and Mrs. Geoffrey Fretwell of Clive in Saskatchewan, above, by district agricultural Walter McNary on the $300 scholarship which he won with his essay "How we control weeds on our farm." The scholarship is awarded annually by the north-west weed control conference, which confers Canada's three prize prizes and is of the north-western States. The $300 scholarship is valid at any accredited university in the field of agriculture. The essay contest is held at the University of Alberta upon completion of his grade 12 studies, which he is now taking at the Lacombe High school. A prominent 4th class member, Frank has won numerous other awards in the past. This is the second occasion on which this valuable scholarship has been won by a Lacombe school student, Jeanne Kierit having won the award in two years ago.

"How We Control Weeds on Our Farm" A Prize Winning Essay

Published below is the essay written by Frank Fretwell, which won the $300 scholarship awarded annually by the north-west weed control conference, which confers Canada's three prize prizes and is of the north-western States.

(By Frank Fretwell)

On prairie farms, the control of weeds is usually a major problem. Our farm is no exception, having a variety of prairie weeds with which we must contend. We control these weeds by cultivating, by plowing, by spraying, by the use of chemicals, and by the use of hand labor. The introduction of new weeds is a constant problem, and we must be on our guard against them.

Another good method is to plow the land as early as possible in the spring. Weeds that have been left dormant in the soil such as wild oats, will germinate along with the growing grain and be plowed and plowed. After several weeks we till the land and then seed it.

A last-minute way of killing small weeds is to harrow the land shortly after seeding. This idea works best under wet conditions. Every year, one-quarter of the trouble comes on our farm is from weeds. We find it necessary to cultivate, and we find it necessary to cultivate.

We have found that summer plowing is still the only practical method of controlling weeds on our farm. But we also use other methods of controlling weeds on our farm. We use chemicals, and we use hand labor.

Planting competitive crops has worked well in wood control on our farm. We use Oats and Corn. Oats and Corn are excellent for use in the control of weeds, as they mature long before the weeds do. We use a corn crop as a cover crop, and we use a corn crop as a cover crop.

This year we planted Gateway barley. It grew at a surprising rate and matured ahead of the weeds. The weeds were in the middle of August and the Gateway are excellent for use in the control of weeds, as they mature long before the weeds do. We use a corn crop as a cover crop, and we use a corn crop as a cover crop.

Three years ago several acres of the same quarter were in the hands of this estate, making it necessary to kill the weeds when cultivating. The following year we seeded this acre to grain and weeded it. The weeds can be seen in the field. They can be seen in the field. They can be seen in the field.

We are sure the plowing and harrowing will bring little from the ground. It is a constant problem on our farm, and we must be on our guard against them. We must be on our guard against them. We must be on our guard against them.

Several years ago, new weeds appeared on our land, especially those that are new. We must be on our guard against them. We must be on our guard against them. We must be on our guard against them.

We have several acres of wheat on our farm. We must be on our guard against them. We must be on our guard against them. We must be on our guard against them.

There are times when a farmer must quickly and effectively control weeds on his farm. But we also use other methods of controlling weeds on our farm. We use chemicals, and we use hand labor.

We have found that summer plowing is still the only practical method of controlling weeds on our farm. But we also use other methods of controlling weeds on our farm. We use chemicals, and we use hand labor.

Terms of Office Extended Six Months

Members of the Lacombe Rotary Club enjoyed a most enjoyable program at their regular weekly meeting held at the Lacombe Memorial Centre last Friday.

Included in the program were a piano solo by Brenda Barker, at the Lacombe school, a short solo by Helen Lawrence, a student at the Canadian Union College, accompanied by organist, and a reading of an excerpt from Dickens' "Christmas Carol" by Dave Bodger.

F. Penner gave a brief report on the recent Christmas day of festival sponsored by the club, and reported that it was certainly the most successful and enjoyable yet undertaken by the club.

President F. O. Vickers was chairman for the meeting.

Changes in the provincial laws and village are now at work and term council nominations and elections in October of each year, the same month on which the annual meeting of the club is held.

A Merry Christmas To All

CHRISTMAS is the feast of all the year's joys... but is the day of the revelry and the family gathering and is not a day of rest and relaxation. It is one of the year's happiest days. Christmas is a time when the spirit of Christmas has been increasingly hidden from the consciousness of all ages, the joy of the festive season, the innocence of children, away by the busy of the day. All those of us, men and women of Christmas, men and women of Christmas, are a day, the observance of men of Christmas.

Unemployment... Is It Increasing?

THESE is a great deal being said these days, unemployment, almost that old beguiling, mysterious word. The Ontario government has been asked to "re-examine" the fact that unemployment in Canada was increasing. That is the only thing that is being said.

One thing is true, the number of those who are unemployed is increasing. The government, and the fact that the number of those who are unemployed is increasing, is a fact that is being said. The government, and the fact that the number of those who are unemployed is increasing, is a fact that is being said.

Drive Carefully

THESE Christmas is upon us, and many hundreds of residents of this district will be driving from one district to another for the first time in many months.

It is a fact that the number of those who are unemployed is increasing. The government, and the fact that the number of those who are unemployed is increasing, is a fact that is being said. Reflections Of The Times

Securing Asks

Keep Only The Best

All Around Alberta

Fax-Cookson Pledge Vows In United Church, Lacombe

St. Andrew's United church, Lacombe, was the setting for the most lively double-barreled service of last night's Christmas Eve, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fox of Toronto, B.C.

Rev. R. B. Thackeray performed the ceremony. Crown in evidence by her husband, the bride looked lovely in a gown of Tulle, which she had worn, garnished with a quantity of blue and white lace.

A hymn set her smiling from the waist over a ruffled veil, and she returned to her seat with a smile. The bride's father, Mr. J. H. Fox, was escorted to the altar by Mr. J. H. Fox.

For her wedding trip, the bride wore a grey fur coat and carried a bouquet of white flowers. The ceremony was held in the church at 8 o'clock.

After the ceremony, the bride and groom were entertained at a reception at the home of Mrs. J. H. Fox. The bride's father, Mr. J. H. Fox, was escorted to the altar by Mr. J. H. Fox.

Electrical Work Is Best Done NOW!

Some silly, doesn't it, postpone and put off the inside electrical repair work... or extensions... until summer time.

Chances are well aware of the employment that summer months can bring over the end of winter months. It can be reduced, if not eliminated, by postponing all jobs to the "winter" now rather than wait April.

For summer time is the best time of the year for electrical contractors. New work, new schools, new business places are being built in the summer... and electricity is needed to work with the construction men to speed the building before the fall sets in.

The Council Proposes:

1. To construct a storm sewer main to drain into Wells Creek, east of the railroad tracks. This main would start at the Allen Lumber Co. yard, cross the main street, cross the main street, cross the main street.

2. To connect into this storm sewer main at 86 street an extension 80 feet north of 85 street to drain low spots which exist east of school.

3. To build three blocks of storm sewer "leader" lines on 81 street from 82 street to 83 street starting at Dr. Haverth's residence, corner east, past the Last Theatre, McTaggart-Windward-McIntyre and one block east.

4. To add in draining low land in vicinity of cutting road, a short extension to the old storm sewer of Jenkins' (Crestview) corner on 82 street.

5. To pave one block east on 82 street, 83 street and 84 street, and doing more work to be done before the next year when the storm sewer is completed. This is a paving program — and I think we should do it now. It will give this basic drainage provided by a storm sewer.

6. To make adjustments in the sum of $75,000, spread over a period of three years, such adjustments to be made in the amount of $1,000 adjustments to repairs of the town of Lacombe, and to be paid over 3 years.

7. To add to the existing costs of water, parking, a freestanding lot of $10,000 (for a 50-ft. lot) would be assessed against properties having such improvements. There would be no freestanding lot on storm sewer installation.

Crestmore Group Hears Talk On Accidents

CRESTMORE.—At the beginning of 1935, the Crestmore group heard a talk on accidents by Harry B. Brown, president of the Lacombe B.C.M.P. speaking to the Crestmore group and several members of the Crestmore group.

The speaker would likely have been the same man who had already done so at Alton, making a 100 per cent increase over last year.

He felt that behind all accidents was the lack of attention and that the driver should be held responsible for the accident.

The TOWN OF LACOMBE Offers District Residents 20-Year, 5% Debentures.

The Council takes this opportunity to offer to its citizens these Town Debentures.

They feel these are the people most interested in the Town. The Council is also mindful of the entire expense of making a prospectus to such possible investors and the cost of hiring a sales organization or bond dealer to dispose of these debentures.

The Council therefore would like to get as large a sale locally as possible for the following reasons:

- It is a particularly attractive investment.
- It would stimulate the economy of Lacombe.
- By selling locally we keep the principal and interest at home.
- It will stimulate a greater interest in the benefits these money brings to the Town.
- These continued comparatively small debentures are readily transferable.
- The denominations of debentures offered will allow small investors to participate.

The Council would like to point out that at this time over $250,000 in 1958 building permits have been issued, providing new assessment which at present tax rate will provide enough new taxes to retire this debenture.

We believe that this is an opportunity to invest in the most prosperous and progressive community in Alberta and to help make it more so.

Do We Really Want a Welfare State?

NO THINKING Canadian can look at the figures regarding unemployment in the house of commons at Ottawa last week without being struck by the almost extraordinary extent this country is going to take.

The present unemployment figures are not, of course, figures of the future, but they are a reflection of the present. The figures show that in the last week of May, 1960, there were 1,000,000 unemployed in Canada. This is a record for this country. The figures also show that in the last week of May, 1960, there were 1,000,000 unemployed in Canada. This is a record for this country.

Canada's commitments in the field of social and welfare are not only the largest in the world, but they are also the most costly. In 1959, the federal government spent over $1,000,000,000 on social and welfare programs. This is a record for this country.

Where does this money come from? From taxes. In 1959, the federal government collected over $1,000,000,000 in taxes. This is a record for this country.

Is this the way to solve our unemployment problem? Is this the way to solve our social and welfare problems? Is this the way to solve our economic problems?

Spirit Of The West

DURING the past month, there have been reports in this paper of "hanging back" in the oil fields of Alberta. The reports have been turned out in large numbers and for a long time. The reports have been turned out in large numbers and for a long time.

This type of news is heart-breaking. It is a reflection of the spirit of the West. It is a reflection of the spirit of the West.

Reflections of "The Times" are a reflection of the spirit of the West. They are a reflection of the spirit of the West.

No Savings. Reflections of the spirit of the times may well have been expressed by a Conservative member in Ottawa recently. He declared, "This is the spirit of the times. We must stop it."

It is a common habit to be surprised from the West, where our effort and productivity are so high. It is a common habit to be surprised from the West.

To the Editor:

I was very much surprised at the lack of support and interest shown by many of the business people of Lacombe in the 431 bed club show and sale at the 20th on June 12.

Of the 110 stalls in this sale 20 were from the east and west. The rest were from the local area. The sale was a success.

There are many reasons for the lack of support and interest shown by many of the business people of Lacombe in the 431 bed club show and sale at the 20th on June 12.

Lineer rifle baseball tournament officials crowned a new champion last Thursday evening when the Lehigh Valley Warriors won the 1987 Lehigh Valley Series in the final game, 5-1, to take first place money of $10,000.

It was an exciting ending to the 10th tournament ever held in Lehigh Valley in the Eastern Pennsylvania League. A.R. Kline, Lehigh Valley Warriors manager, said the Warriors' season was "a real success."

Grassum White Sox, winners of two tournaments here, entered the crew of also-rans when the Dodgers from Calgary pulled out eight tremendous home runs to sweep the champs, 14-1, in two games.

Lehigh Valley's first day's play was a 10-2 victory by the Lehigh Valley Mariners over the Lehigh Valley Warriors in the first round.

Van Maple Leaf player who suffered a double fracture of a left arm in the first day's play, a $400 fee was donated by the fans and the two finalists each dub in $350 toward helping the injured player David DeLoach. DeLoach is still a patient in the hospital here, but he is expected to be released soon.

Lehigh Valley Warriors' season ends with a 10-1 record.

The come-from-behind Dodgers were the crowd's favorites as they battled a couple of costly errors, and almost dou-

Thanks to untiring research, many dangerous diseases are under control today. A number of other killers, however, are still unsolved problems.

In the use of all research effort being made to solve them, the medical schools of Canadian universities are playing an important part.

To help strengthen and develop their research programs, the Life Insurance Companies in Canada are providing research fellowships to their universities, every year.

Fellowships are awarded to graduates who have been recognized by the medical schools of Canadian universities. During the past two years 107 fellowships of this nature, amounting to half a million dollars have been granted.

"Along with our neighbors (none of who are paying to live in their houses) we're hiring teachers and clerks and ditch diggers, engineers and stenographers, councillors and joe-jobs to work for us . . . few of whom are ever paid," comments The Counsellor.

One of the toughest things in the world is to live within one's income.

A survey made a few years ago among companies ranging all the way from $2,500 to $25,000 a year found that almost everyone wanted one thing more than just ten per cent more money.

"That would solve all my problems."

But they're really useful thinkers.

Mr. Pamentier doesn't just talk about sound suggestions about how to do it, to copy of the new B of M booklet "Blue Personal and Family Planning." It's free. Lacombe B of M.

A Million-Dollar Shopping Centre

At a time of economic uncertainty and perhaps declining resources the possibility of a million-dollar shopping centre in Lacombe is a dream. There is no doubt that the town has a need for such a shopping centre. The town is a small town and the shopping centre is a dream. The town is a small town and the shopping centre is a dream. The town is a small town and the shopping centre is a dream.

Perhaps we are entering into a new era of shopping. When the small town with the personal service shopping centre will virtually be the only type of shopping centre. The town is a small town and the shopping centre is a dream. The town is a small town and the shopping centre is a dream.

Spring Valley 4-H Club Now Two Years Old

Spring Valley 4-H club, which organized on October 15, 1967, is entering its second year of operation with a satisfactory membership of 11 members. Mrs. D. W. Watt is leader of the group, assisted by Mrs. Hume, and Mrs. Hume.

The club is one of the few clubs in the district with a dual program. After taking clothing training during the winter months, 12 of the 13 members will form a garden club next spring under the direction of Mrs. Hume.

It was decided that this year to be a garden club. The club will be a garden club. The club will be a garden club. The club will be a garden club.

Getting back to the clothing project, which is the club's main concern, a series of four sewing lessons were held last week. Mrs. Hume, and Mrs. Hume, and Mrs. Hume.

Third-year girls are allowed three projects of their own choice. These are usually taken in the form of a skirt, blouse, jumper or dress. There are some members in the group, despite the short winter season, of the club, who had previous experience with the club before joining at Spring Valley.

There are talks and demonstrations on group discussions on sewing techniques, and on the use of a sewing machine, and on the use of a sewing machine, and on the use of a sewing machine.

Debiture Issue Didn't Go Over

THELLE something that is reported from the High River Times "Of the $100,000 in hospital debentures which have been offered for sale in the area, only $10,000 have been purchased by district residents. The local residents who have purchased hospital debentures have in reality financed the hospital addition to its present stage. It is not for their financial support the hospital should not have gone about with the building program when there was a debt."

The Christmas Tree "Industry"

A LITTLE published last night around again with the paper of the edition. The Christmas tree business will be an estimated $100,000 in sales in the district this Christmas.

Christmas trees have become quite an item in the export market. Last year, more than 12 million trees were exported. Our export market is the United States, where the Christmas tree is a popular item.

The No. 1 producer of trees in Canada is the small province of Nova Scotia, followed by the province of Quebec. The province of British Columbia accounted for more than 20 million trees last year.

There is a cause for reflection in the comparatively small returns from a rather valuable resource. Christmas trees sold for less than $10 per tree.

You Can Help Relieve Seasonal Unemployment In This District

Each year at this time, dozens of workers - right in this district - are out of jobs because our extreme winter weather seriously curtails outdoor work. It is true that most of these workers are covered by Unemployment Insurance, and receive some small return from this fund to help tide them over until spring.

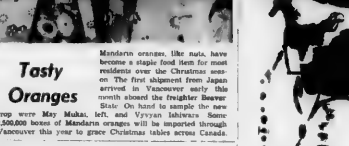

These funds are not big, and the reservoir is not inexhaustible. While drawing such funds, the workers are not contributing anything to the economy of the district or the country as a whole.

This store of affairs, particularly in this district, is largely unexplored. Each spring it is amazing how many householders and business men have not thought of the possibility of doing work which can be successfully completed during the cold winter months as in the spring when outside work "opens up" again.

If you contemplate any such type of improvement, repairs or improvements, plan to get it done during the winter months. You will be materially helped in your efforts if they are temporarily out of a job through no fault of their own - and you will probably be doing yourself a favor since supplies and the type of workmanship you want are both more readily available at this time of year than in the spring, summer or fall.

REMEMBER, YOU CAN HELP THESE WORKERS HELP THEMSELVES DURING THE WINTER MONTHS. YOU ARE FULFILLING ONE OF THE REQUIREMENTS OF GOOD CITIZENSHIP - AND AT THE SAME TIME BENEFITTING YOURSELF.

The game was the last meeting of these two bitter rivals before the new year rolls around, and will help with the question of league status. The Hawks are the old dunder "bros" in second place, while the Penguins are only a fast climb, same with eight penalties, six of them in the third period — being handed out.

Don Toukey scored all three of Pittsburgh's goals in the third period, with Jackie Moore assisting.

Pick Your Own New Year's For A Celebration

With a little imagination and a lot of stanzas — you can ring in the New Year with more than one celebration.

In fact, you can keep on celebrating all through the year, just by writing choruses.

The World Book Encyclopedia says most of the Christmas verses were the choir sang on January 1st.

But by trading in the Gregorian calendar for the Julian calendar, you can have another New Year's party on January 1.

Take a few months to recover, and you can ring in the New Year celebration on March 1. If that's not your style, you can ring in the New Year every year in autumn, when the choir sang on January 1st.

You want to not out on the New Year's party, you can make your party happen to India. The Indians divided into many different religious groups, and each group marks the beginning of the year on a different date.

Some readers of the week-end magazine section in the Daily newspaper may have noticed a colored picture taken by Ken Bentley, 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Bentley, of Lacombe, as a tribute to the Book of the Week.

The picture was very unusual, which may account for its publication in this magazine which boasts a circulation in the hundreds of thousands.

It was a shot of a boy, Bentley, standing in a field, with a large, colorful, and unusual airplane in the background. The airplane was a model of a biplane, with a large propeller and a small engine. The boy was standing next to it, looking up at it with a sense of wonder.
